THE NOSE KNOWS GAME RULES

Goal: To make a complete one page (double-sided) zine of your own!!

Necessities: 2 pieces of 8½×11 paper. 1 die. Some pens. 3 players, Various household items.

Rules: START AT START! Sing a Beatles song together! Whoever can remember the most words goes 1st! Players roll 1 die per turn. You can go in either direction along the wheel (like Trivial Pursuit) Do what the squares tell you! OR answer the question posed!

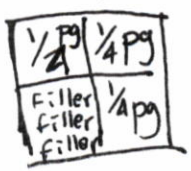

SQUARES: Nose Knows! This is what the paper is for! Do what the square says on the blank paper, filling the size indicated (eg. ¼ page) "Filler" means you can put a bunch of these on the same ¼ page. Remember to leave one ¼ pg blank for the address square!

END GAME: When you have filled all but one ¼ pg everyone should start heading for the middle hub space. If you land on a space at this point just ignore its instructions. The 1st one to get there or an exact roll wins 1 star & the right to make the address ¼ pg!

DON'T FORGET to do the final mini game when someone reaches the middle!

WINNING: Count your correct quiz answers! Count up your stars! Whoever has the most stars wins!

Voila! You now have your own zine! Go to kinko's! Send it to all your friends!

an example ←

Some tips: leave yourself a ¼ inch border all around the edges of your paper. Have beers & stuff around, cause there is a lot of waiting around. For faster play, tear your paper into eight ¼ pg sheets so people can work on 2 parts at once. If you have more than 3 people, just make teams! And send us a copy of your finished product! Yay!

CORRECTION: In Vol. 1, Is. 40 it should read "to learn to hula-hoop OR to die" not "to learn to hula-hoop TO die." Jeez, I'm not some crazy nihilist. -AW
